Subject:- Emergency Recruitment to the Indian Administrative Service- Selection of Mysore Civil Service officers under the Indian Administrative Service (Extension to States) Scheme.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence resting with your Memo. No.6657/CB, dated the 25th July 1950, on the above subject, I am directed to say that the names of Shri H. Niranjan Raj Urs and Shri M. Ramaswamayya, who were included in the lists forwarded with your letter No.11610/CB, dated the 27th February 1950, have been omitted from the subsequent list forwarded with your letter No.3841/CB, dated the 4th June 1950, to the Ministry of States. It is presumed that the cases of these officers are not to be considered by the Special Recruitment Board. Kindly confirm.

2. The proforma and confidential reports in respect of Shri K. Guru Dutt, whose name has been included in the list forwarded with your letter of 4th June 1950, referred to above, may kindly be forwarded to the Board at an early date.

3. The special reports on the work of officers of the rank of Deputy Commissioners and above, which were asked for in the telegram of the 6th November 1950, may also be forwarded as early as possible.

Yours faithfully,

(R.K.Rangan)
